KENTUCKY NIGHT RIDERS

Invade Ohio—Large Tobacco
Warehouse of Paul Kautz
Burned at Boude's Ferry

One of the holdest moves of the Kentucky night riders was committed last night just after midnight when several skiff loads of Kentucky night riders crossed the river just below Augusta and burned the large tobacco warehouse of Paul Kautz at Boude's Ferry, opposite Augusta.

There were some 50 or 60 men in the band and they were masked in true night rider habilliments.

The Kautz warehouse is a total loss, with a large quantity of tobacco. However, the building and contents were insured. Loss about $15,000.

Kautz is the same independent buyer who was forced to leave Bracken county a few weeks ago.

Governor Harris of Ohio is aroused over the outrage and will force the issue with Governor Wilson.

TOBACCO CROP

Report From Frankfort Says Only 11 Counties Will Cut Out the Weed

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 24th. — Reports which are coming in from the Burley Tobacco District to the State Department of Agriculture indicate that there will be very little tobacco grown in any of the large producing counties in the District.

Owen, Nicholas, Bourbon, Fayette, Scott, Robertson, Franklin, Pendleton, Shelby, Mercer and Grant will grow no tobacco at all, so far as can be learned.

In Woodford, Clark, Harrison, Nelson, Mason, Anderson, Washington, Bath, Lewis and Montgomery there will be a little tobacco grown, as there are a few of the farmers who are resisting the efforts of their neighbors to force them to cut out the 1908 crop.

In Madison, Lawrence, Carter, Greenup, Lincoln, Casey, Bullitt and Spencer it is understood that the crop of tobacco will be larger than ever, but these counties have never been tobacco producing counties on a large scale, so that the growers are not worried over the reports of the large acreage from those counties.

TAFT A WINNER

Says New York World—Others Out of the Running and Taft's Election Certain

New York, April 24th.—The World in an editorial today says:

"William H. Taft will be nominated for President by the Republican National Convention.

"If William J. Bryan is to be the Democratic candidate, Judge Taft's election is certain.

"The opposition to Judge Taft's nomination has practically collapsed. He has a majority of the delegates already elected. He has back of him all the power, prestige and popularity of the Roosevelt administration. None of the other candidates has any considerable support outside of his own State. Most of them can count on only a complimentary vote. None of them could deliver his delegates to Hughes or Cannon or Knox or Fairbanks. All four of these opposing candidates are personally friendly to Taft. All of them know that Taft is sure to be nominated. All of them should realize that public assurance of his nomination would be a great stimulus to prosperity. By removing popular uncertainty as to the action of the Republican Convention they would aid decidedly in the restoration of confidence. For if Mr. Bryan is as sure of the Democratic nomination as he pretends, nothing remains in doubt but the size of Judge Taft's majority."

DYSPEPSIA

"Having taken your wonderful 'Cascarets' for three months and being entirely cured of stomach ailments and dyspepsia, I think a word of praise is due to 'Cascarets' for their wonderful composition, have taken numerous other so-called remedies but without avail and I find that Cascarets relieve more in a day than all the others I have taken would in a year."

THE NEW KENTUCKY.

The newspapers of the State have called attention to the new movements for improving the Public and Primary Schools of the State. The Churches have already led the way in such work for the mountains. A Ledger reporter in a conversation with Rev. John Barbour, who has just returned from Pikeville, learned something of this work. "Our own Northern Presbyterian Church," said he, "although one of the smallest in the State, has sixteen Academies in the mountains, largely more than any other Church. These are placed at county seats and other strategic points where they may best influence their sections. In this way many times more pupils are being reached than by Berea, and with far less expenditure of money. Pikeville Collegiate Institute is the largest of those Academies, and occupies a more important location.

"Pikeville is a handsome mountain town on the Big Sandy river of 2,000 people. It has electric lights, cement walks and a modern hotel. The inexhaustible mineral deposits are bringing great aggregations of capital, predicting in a few years a little Pittsburgh in the Kentucky hills.

"The school has a Faculty of seven teachers, and over 300 pupils. The fact that over $3,000 tuition is collected shows the eagerness of the young people to receive the best education.

"The Presbyterian dedicated a new Girls' Dormitory, which has cost over $40,000, the gift almost entirely of Mr. John A. Simpson of Covington. It is placed on a lofty plateau overlooking the valley. It testifies to the valuation Presbyterians put upon education. Like the Pharos in the harbor of Alexandria, it holds up the torch of learning to all that section, guaranteeing to the women of the mountains an equal chance with the men. Under the administration of Dr. James F. Record, a skilled educator from Pennsylvania and Minnesota, a thorough Normal Department is also taught. I saw there over fifty young men and women who will go out to teach in the Public Schools. Through them the school will touch with its high ideals and modern culture over 5,000 young people this year. Dr. Record says he has never taught finer minds. Some of them have already carried off prizes in the larger Kentucky and Eastern Colleges. They are going to tell grandly on the New Kentucky which is coming.

"This splendid region was practically inaccessible when it took a day and a half to drive over miserable roads to Pikeville. Now it is reached by rail in four hours from Ashland. As a consequence, the Presbytery and the Ladies' Missionary Society were present in good numbers. Having left their impress on that community, they will go back to their own homes with an enlarged sense of duty to that people, and with an enthusiastic opinion of their splendid possibilities."

What is medicine for? To cure you, if sick, you say. But one medicine will not cure every kind of sickness, because different medicines act on different parts of the body. One medicine goes to the liver, another to the spine, Wine of Cardui to the womanly organs. So that is why has proven so efficacious in most cases of womanly disease. Try it.

Wine of Cardui

Mrs. Wm. Turner, of Bartonville, Ill., writes: "I suffered for years with female diseases, and doctored without relief. My back and head would hurt me, and I suffered agony with bearing-down pains. At last I took Wine of Cardui and now I am in good health." Sold everywhere, in $1.00 bottles.
